In The County Jail.

Keep Off The Grass!

A WIRE fence is being placed along the walks which run through the court house yard. This is being done to keep persons who are in a hurry from "cutting through" and walking on the grass. Two paths worn in the grass already mar the beauty of the yard. Keep off the grass!

Church Pictures.

THE NEWS reproduces on first page, through courtesy of the Reporter, excellent pictures of the old Methodist Church building and also the new building now in course of construction. Work is progressing rapidly on the new church, and it will doubtless be ready to dedicate in September.

Oranges Grown In Bourbon.

MRS. THOS. HENRY CLAY, who has had such splendid success in cultivating fine roses and chrysanthemums in her well equipped hot house, has succeeded in raising an orange tree which now has on it about one hundred and fifty ripe oranges. The oranges are well developed, and look very pretty hanging on the tree.

Female Pugilists.

MAG MEACHEM and Mollie Talbott, both colored, fought two rounds ala Fitzsimmons-Corbett, the other night, which ended in a drawn battle. Judge Webb delivered the knock-out blow Wednesday, when he fined each combatant $7.50.

Sallie Ecton, also colored, was fined $7.50 for "swatting" a female friend of the same complexion, a blow over the head.

Spring Display Of Fashionable Millinery.

MRS. M. PARKER, the popular milliner, is making special preparation for her Spring display of fashionable millinery. The first openings will occur on Friday and Saturday, April 2d and 3d. Especial care has been taken in the selection of the entire stock and everything is tasty, dainty and up-to-date. The ladies of Bourbon and surrounding counties are cordially invited to call and inspect the many dainty conceptions created for their particular delectation. Mrs. Parker has also arranged a beautiful and novel display for children for the above named days.

Now is the very time you want to let the little ones have an airing. Go to J. T. Hinton's and get one of those nice buggies cheap.

A Business Proposition.

MR. C. H. WILLIAMS, a very reliable gentleman and a contractor who has built and equipped many miles of street railroad, was in the city Wednesday. Mr. Williams believes that an electric street car system in Paris, run economically, would prove to be a paying investment. To prove that he means business Mr. Williams made the following proposition:

If the citizens of Paris will subscribe enough stock to build about two miles of track he will equip it with a patent motor car and run it sixty days on trial without a cent's expense to the stockholders. The motor car requires no trolley and runs independent of a power house. The car is guaranteed to give satisfaction. If the trial proves satisfactory and the citizens will organize and equip a complete line, Mr. Williams offers to lease and pay a rental of eight per cent on the investment. According to Mr. Williams' estimates two miles of track could be built and equipped with one of these motor cars for $10,000—possibly less.

Mr. Williams interested several enterprising citizens in the matter and it is possible that a company will be organized at an early date.

This enterprise would be of inestimable value in building up Paris, and would enhance the value of all property on Main street. It would be an advantage to every citizen of Paris, and we hope that our merchants will interest themselves in the enterprise. A street car line can be built cheaper now than ever before.

If you want to see a beautiful line of straw matting, call at J. T. Hinton's and you can be satisfied.

Circuit Court News.

The case of R. J. Brown vs. James Scott's heirs resulted in a hung jury yesterday.

The jury also disagreed in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Chas. Burroughs, suffering and permitting gaming on premises.

R. P. Dow, Jr., a talented young man of this city, and a graduate of Centre College, was this week admitted to the Bourbon bar. He is a son of R. P. Dow, and has a large circle of friends who wish him success.

The cases of the Commonwealth vs. Speck Helvey, John Carter and Jeff Harris, robbery, and Henry Myers and Bud Kennedy, horse stealing, were continued.

The case of Wm. Herndon vs. L. &amp; N. R. R. was compromised.

The case of Ward &amp; Dickson vs. Dinwiddie McKee's Admr., was dismissed, settled.

The case of R. L. Langston vs. J. W. Lancaster, which has been on the docket for several terms, has been compromised.

Fire At Shawhan.

WEDNESDAY morning at four o'clock the brick store room occupied as a general store of Wm. Tamme, was destroyed by a fire of unknown origin. Tamme's stock was insured for $1,400.

The L. &amp; N. depot and other adjacent property was in great danger for a while on account of the high wind blowing the flame and sparks, but the fire was by hard work confined to the brick building. A part of the building was occupied as an office by Dr. J. W. Ferguson, who saved most of his office furniture.

A family named Gregory, living over the store, came near losing their lives in the fire. They were almost suffocated before they awakened, and they lost all of their clothing and household goods.

The building was owned by Thos. Hinkston, of Cynthiana, and was valued at about $5,000. This is the third building which has burned on that site.

The Bank-Tax Case Decided Adversely To The Banks.

THE Court of Appeals decided Wednesday that banks must be assessed and taxed just as other property for State, county and city purposes, reversing the former decision which held that the Hewitt law was in effect a contract under which, by payment of seventy-five cents on each $100 to the State, banks were exempt from local taxation. Judges Paynter, Guffy, White and Lewis concurred in the opinion, and Judge DuRelle, Burnam and Hazelrigg dissented. The case will be carried to the Supreme Court of the United States. Bankers are divided in opinion as to the effects of the decision, though no marked results are anticipated, at least until the case is passed upon by the Supreme Court.

Facts About Easter.

EASTER occurs late this year—April 18th. Easter may come as early as March 23d, or late as April 25th. It is determined by the phase of the moon, as it is always Sunday after the first full moon immediately following Spring equinox (March 21st). Should the moon fall on that date the succeeding Sunday is Easter. This year the first full moon after March 21st is at 1 a. m. Saturday, April 17, and consequently Easter is on the Sunday thereafter, which is April 18th.

Lowest prices, best goods and a complete assortment of styles, is the secret of the large business J. T. Hinton does.
